ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue the pretrial motion deadline by defendant John Ezell (Ezell) (Filing No. 27). Ezell requests additional time in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Ezell's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 27) is granted. Ezell is given until on or before December 16, 2013, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motions and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motions, i.e., the time between December 2, 2013, and December 16, 2013, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 2nd day of December, 2013.
